United Way Unveils “Fill the Porch with Food”
Day of Caring 2003 revamped to address hunger

Questions应该 be directed to the United Way of Tompkins County at 272-6264. United Way is seeking donations of non-perishable food items including canned fruit and tomato juice, canned meats including tuna, beans, rice, legumes, pasta, puddings, ice cream, soup, milk, juice, noodles, canned vegetables, cheese, eggs, tea, coffee, and peanut butter; canned vegetables, bacon, dried beans, rice, pasta; soup; canned fruits; juice; milk; noodles; peanut butter; crackers; cereal; peanut butter; canned vegetables; toast; and other non-perishable food items.

Personal Care and Household Items

- Shampoo/conditioner; toothpaste; toilet paper; paper towels; tissues; feminine pads and tampons; toothbrushes

Third Annual Plants for Life Sale Set for September 13

Sonja Skalsky

More than 4,000 plants representing over 150 different varieties including hardy perennials from native and non-native regions are listed in the plants inventory. These are available from Volunteer Gardeners who have donated plants at the sale. The sale will be held September 13, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Dr. John W. Barger Center Courtyard,之间的, greenhouse, and open fields. The sale will be held September 13, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Dr. John W. Barger Center Courtyard, and open fields. The sale will be held September 13, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Dr. John W. Barger Center Courtyard, and open fields. The sale will be held September 13, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Dr. John W. Barger Center Courtyard, and open fields. The sale will be held September 13, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Dr. John W. Barger Center Courtyard, and open fields. The sale will be held September 13, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Dr. John W. Barger Center Courtyard, and open fields. The sale will be held September 13, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Dr. John W. Barger Center Courtyard, and open fields. The sale will be held September 13, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Dr. John W. Barger Center Courtyard, and open fields.

White Hall Tour

As an exciting group gathered to learn about the history, tour of the newly renovated student center in White Hall, director of Development for United Way of Tompkins County, recently opened its doors after a complete renovation. During the renovation, White Hall's interior was completely gutted and updated, leaving the exterior foundation that was originally present from the building's late 1800s origins.

A NEWSPAPER BY AND FOR THE CORNELL COMMUNITY

A Newspaper by and for the Cornell Community, PawPrint is a student-run publication of the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences. It is an independent, non-profit, co-operative, incorporated and governed by volunteers.
ideal and high spirits were in abundance for the third annual Arts College “Carnival” Picnic. Crowds and Smiles.

"I was a computer user attack by hackers, viruses, and worms, says the CASC security team. Protect your system and keep it safe. Safe computing good for the Internet and for your department.

TechTalk
Secure Your Computer

The image contains text related to various topics such as technology, community events, and educational opportunities. It includes advertisements for technology courses, public talks, and community events. The text mentions the availability of courses on various topics, including computer security, technology courses, and community events. The text also includes details about specific events, such as the 2003 Veterans Survey Available Online, the 2003 CID Scope Announcement, and the Arts College “Carnival” Picnic. The text also includes information about the Cornell Community, including its employees and their achievements, and the role of the university in the community. The text also includes information about the Cornell University staff member who is retiring, and the opportunities for community members to get involved in campus events. The text also includes information about the Cornell Community, including its employees and their achievements, and the role of the university in the community. The text also includes information about the Cornell University staff member who is retiring, and the opportunities for community members to get involved in campus events.
Classified Ads

For Sale

Wedding dress, long, ecru, 1-24-03, dry cleaned, best offer $45-555-305.

1997 Honda Odyssey SE, 91K, beige, sunroof, moon roof, clean title, good cond., $12,900 or 277-8598.

1987 Baja 220, 5.0L inboard, good cond., $2,100 or 277-4675 (text)

1996 Subaru Legacy wagon, 45K, 5-speed, A/C, cloth seat, evicted once, good cond., $4,900 or 252-8675.

2000 Honda Accord LX, 44K, 4-door, auto, new tires, new battery, evicted once, great cond., $3,900 or 252-8675.

1984 1st Imperial Fish & Ski, 50 hp Force outboard, 16’ trailer, full fridge, canvas & cover, very nice boat, $1,800 or 484-303

1991 Chrysler TP 4 door sedan, 158K, 5-speed, A/C, cloth seat, evicted once, good cond., $4,900 or 252-8675.

2001 Dodge Neon, very good cond., runs great, 74K, black, great Stereo system, $3,600 or 888-3999 (text)

Guidelines for Classified Ads

Free to members of the Cornell community, ads are printed space-permitted. Remember to:

• Include name, campus phone number and the category year at end of ad.
• Limit to a 20 word ad or less.
• Submit only one ad per category per week.
• Ads selling goods or commercial services on an ongoing basis or promoting employment outside Cornell cannot be accepted.
• To run your ad more than once, you must resubmit it.
• Advertiser is responsible for errors or unposted ads, and has the right to add a reject or any submission.

E-mail ads to:
classified@cornell.edu
or submit to:
PawPrint Classifieds c/o Allan Krusin, 220 International Hall Classified Deadline:
• Sept. 4 for Sept. 11 tour
• Sept. 18 for Sept. 25 tour

Upcoming Events

October 21: Halloween Happenings

CRC’s Spook-tacular event will be happening again this year in G05 Be Tech. Judy Hart will rename this year’s event from 12:00-1:30 p.m. There will be goodies and prizes everywhere! Please dress in the grand costumes possible as a group or individual or just come to cheer on your favorites.

November 9: Cornucopia in Syracuse

The Talbot Co. is proud to present Barry Mahoney’s Cornucopia at the Shea’s Times Theatre in Syracuse. CRC will be attending the 200 p.m. performance. After the show, the group will enjoy dinner at Danz’s Exaurum Restaurant. The cost is $35 per admission and admission to the show. The cost of dinner is a your own expense.

December 6: Longwood Gardens, Pennsylvania

Longwood Gardens will be all decked out in its holiday finery for CRC’s visit on Saturday, December 6. The price for this trip is $65/pers, which includes admission, transportation, and main meal.

January 11-February 9, 2004: Aloha Hawaii

Call Melinda at Stone Travel, 807-753-8201, or e-mail melinda@stoneytrave.com to find out about this trip to Hawaii. CRC is still selling tickets to Enchanted Forest for $115/person, and also carries discount coupons for Universal Studios, Beach Gardens, and Seaworld.

Cornell Plantations Fall 2003 Fall Lecture Series

All lectures, except the first, will be held in the James Law Auditorium, Farquhar College of Veterinary Medicine, at 7:30 p.m.

September 10: Art of Barbecue: Flavors Live: Nature and Poetry, John Bunkin (5:30 p.m.), 246 Waver Hall

September 17: From Nature: Photographing Nature (Michael Phillips), Gymnastics Center

October 1: Around the World in 50 Plants, Donna Gifford

October 8: Fun with Botanical Names, John Morrill

October 15: Quirky Man, Black, and Mrs. Roy Stealing at Western Slope Wolf, Horse Hall

October 22: Guidance for Birds, Stephen Knowlton

October 29: Goods from God: Growing Our Food’s Future, Paul Sohland

November 5: The Flower of the Three Wheels: Building an Environmentally Sustainable Swan, Mary Mason

November 12: Inspiring Plants to Share: Introduction to Seed Sowing, John Manion

This series is offered for 1 credit S/U, Course ID #142-789. For more information, call 255-2401 or e-mail km274@cornell.edu.

For more of our fall offerings, see our education brochure or call community outreach coordinator Kevin Moss at 1-877-209-3144 to make an appointment.

Fun with Botanical Names

Around the World in 80 Plants

Gardening for Birds

Inspired by Bach: Designing the Toronto Music Garden

Let the Barbaric Flowers Live: Nature and Poetry

Planting the Future: Preserving Native Medicinal Plants

Upcoming Events

October 21: Halloween Happenings

CRC’s Spook-tacular event will be happening again this year in G05 Be Tech. Judy Hart will rename this year’s event from 12:00-1:30 p.m. There will be goodies and prizes everywhere! Please dress in the grand costumes possible as a group or individual or just come to cheer on your favorites.

November 9: Cornucopia in Syracuse

The Talbot Co. is proud to present Barry Mahoney’s Cornucopia at the Shea’s Times Theatre in Syracuse. CRC will be attending the 200 p.m. performance. After the show, the group will enjoy dinner at Danz’s Exaurum Restaurant. The cost is $35 per admission and admission to the show. The cost of dinner is a your own expense.

December 6: Longwood Gardens, Pennsylvania

Longwood Gardens will be all decked out in its holiday finery for CRC’s visit on Saturday, December 6. The price for this trip is $65/pers, which includes admission, transportation, and main meal.

January 11-February 9, 2004: Aloha Hawaii

Call Melinda at Stone Travel, 807-753-8201, or e-mail melinda@stoneytrave.com to find out about this trip to Hawaii. CRC is still selling tickets to Enchanted Forest for $115/person, and also carries discount coupons for Universal Studios, Beach Gardens, and Seaworld.

Cornell Plantations Fall 2003 Fall Lecture Series

All lectures, except the first, will be held in the James Law Auditorium, Farquhar College of Veterinary Medicine, at 7:30 p.m.

September 10: Art of Barbecue: Flavors Live: Nature and Poetry, John Bunkin (5:30 p.m.), 246 Waver Hall

September 17: From Nature: Photographing Nature (Michael Phillips), Gymnastics Center

October 1: Around the World in 50 Plants, Donna Gifford

October 8: Fun with Botanical Names, John Morrill

October 15: Quirky Man, Black, and Mrs. Roy Stealing at Western Slope Wolf, Horse Hall

October 22: Guidance for Birds, Stephen Knowlton

October 29: Goods from God: Growing Our Food’s Future, Paul Sohland

November 5: The Flower of the Three Wheels: Building an Environmentally Sustainable Swan, Mary Mason

November 12: Inspiring Plants to Share: Introduction to Seed Sowing, John Manion

This series is offered for 1 credit S/U, Course ID #142-789. For more information, call 255-2401 or e-mail km274@cornell.edu.

For more of our fall offerings, see our education brochure or call community outreach coordinator Kevin Moss at 1-877-209-3144 to make an appointment.