Facilities Management Honors Five
Tenth annual Breakfast of Champions held January 13

Belth Kunz

For Facilities Management (FM), January means it is time to honor the annual Breakfast of Champions, an event that recognizes the Golden Bear award winners. In January 21, 1989, the new Golden Bears were honored before a hearty breakfast at the Tillman’s that drew approximately 350 people. The Golden Bear award recognizes the outstanding work of the FM staff. The awardees are nominated by their colleagues and must meet the following criteria: job excellence, dedication, leadership, creativity, customer service, and other outstanding job performance that supports Facilities Management values.

This 2004 Golden Bear winners are:

Gordie Bowen
Gordie Bowen, who will celebrate his 30th anniversary at Cornell in 2004, has the reputation of being reliable and concerned. Bowen also works for the Ithaca isle. He has served on the Cornell 2004 team, and has long been a member of the Cornell Golden Bear Committee.

Jan Brown
Jan Brown has been a member of the Building Care team for more than 20 years, always striving for excellence. Brown, who has been promoted three times, has a strong work ethic and has received the Excellent Attendance Award at Building Care 20 times.

Cathy Caveney

Van Alstine

Jim Woods

Well-known around campus as a reliable, legendary customer service oriented individual, Cathy Caveney, has played a key role in improving the overall efficiency of daily business operations in Cornell. Moreover, she has taken a leadership role in managing a number of mindfulness events for the general public.

Ryan Van Alstine
For the handful of building coordinates across campus, Ryan Van Alstine is the pleasant voice on the other end of the phone who can deal with any problem that comes. Van Alstine’s keen sense of humor, can-do spirit and initiative has made him an essential part of the Customer Service Center.

Jim Woods
Jim Woods, who will celebrate his 20th anniversary at Cornell this March, routinely goes beyond the call of duty in responding to every possible type of Building Care emergency. His strong work ethic led to his promotion to head custodian 10 years ago.

At the breakfast, FM also recognized the Golden Bear committee that includes: Gordie Bowen, Pat Anderson, Cathy Caveney, Ryan Van Alstine, Jim Woods, and Cathy Caveney. Also thanked for their hard work was the Facilities Management Calibration & Audits Committee members: Cher Stu, chair, Wanda Mattos, Nancy McCoy, Steven Griffin, Randy Norman, Elaine Adams, Ruth Cole, Gregory Worth, Charlotte Light, Dave MacDonald, Cindy Reynolds, Joyce Veil, and Kathy Darby.

Answering the “Call to Engagement”

Kathy Horteguy
associate dean of Administration, Facilities and Finance response to one of the eight questions that are part of the “Call to Engagement”, a discussion of issues about Cornell’s future direction. A second session on the “Call to Engagement” will be held January 22 from 2:20 to 3:30 p.m. in 208 Brock. Staff are invited to take part in the discussion and enjoy refreshments.

leadership leads leads
George Peter

courage is the greatest luxury. After all, it is exponentially more rewarding to support leadership development. Some people wonder if a leadership development program could be started. I am sure it could be

1. The president is to be invested with power.
2. The president is the head of the executive branch.
3. The president is the commander-in-chief of the armed forces.
4. The president is the chief representative of the United States in international affairs.
