A 35-year-old Cornell Hall tradition is back again. Cornell’s annual Empty Dorm Day, set for October 8, will feature a “Battle of the Bands” Cornell Big Red against the Harvard Crimson. This year, Cornell Catering will whip up the meal and there will be a variety of barbecue chicken or vegetarian lasagna. Crossroad the Chews, a perennial favorite at this event, will perform its antics throughout the dinner. Empty Dorm Day culminates the ninth annual Staff Celebration Week, held Oct. 3-8.

In addition to the community dinner, other activities planned for staff and their families on Oct. 8 include discounted bowling at Helen Newman Lanes, free swimming in the Helen Newman Hall pool and a community-oriented tour and identification of the Cornell Audubon. Full details are available in the Employee Day folder that was mailed out to all Cornell faculty and staff the first week of September. You can download a copy of the flier from www.pawprint.cornell.edu.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

I want to take this opportunity to sincerely thank the staff who demonstrated outstanding personal excellence and enthusiasm in the management of the 2003 ‘One Week, Many Programs’ program. The Office of the Vice President for Educational and Academic Affairs, the Office of the Vice Provost for Diversity and Faculty Development, the Office of the Dean of Students, Cornell Interactive Theatre Ensemble, and Community Development/ Campus Programs: a complete list of those involved appears on page 1.

Your support, Program Coordinator, Cornell Interactive Theatre Ensemble

Dear Editor,

The Cornell Library Outreach will thank all the members of the Community who brought their talents for the Carol Back Memorial Quilts. We lack the words to thank you. We are grateful to the entire community for all your time and effort.

Vivian Rhodes, Program Coordinator, Cornell Interactive Theater Ensemble

Getting Started with MealChoice

MealChoice offers Monthly Opportunities to Win a Week of Free Lunches

MealChoice customers who arrive in time for a full week of free lunches valued at $25–100 by using MealChoice. MealChoice staff provides a level of convenience you won’t find anywhere else, and all orders come with a personal delivery person to ensure that your order arrives on time. By purchasing at least 5 MealChoice lunches a week during any month with a Cornell dietary restriction, you will be automatically entered into the drawing for that month. The more lunches you purchase, the more chances you have to win. Each month two winners will be announced in PawPrint and will automatically be added to their MealChoice accounts.

Fall ’05 Focus On Cholesterol Series Scheduled

Cholesterol can be both good and bad. It’s important to learn what cholesterol is, where it comes from and how it changes with age, sex, and cholesterol levels. The Cornell Wellness Program is offering Fall 9 Cholesterol Series Session 1: Cholesterol Basics

Tuesday, October 4, 8:30–9:30 a.m., 255 McGraw Hall. For more information or to make an appointment, call 255-2405.
